

The Bugallo-Williams Piano Duo

NEW MUSIC DAY-PASS

for

Sunday March 8, 2009

IonSound Project

IonSound Project and the Pittsburgh Chamber Music Society are pleased to announce the New Music Day-Pass for Sunday March 8, 2009. Purchase tickets to hear the Bugallo-Williams Piano Duo and IonSound Project with KnotDance and a light dinner in between, all for $20! Please see details below:

3 p.m. at Frick Fine Arts Auditorium (650 Schenley Dr. Pittsburgh, PA 15260)

Bridges Fine-tuned, Part II: Featuring the Bugallo-Williams Piano Duo premiering Amy Williams' new composition for piano, with music by Gyorgy Kurtag, Machaut, Frescobaldi, Purcell, J.S. Bach, Conlon Nancarrow, and Igor Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring for piano four hands.

5:15 p.m. at Bellefield Hall 2nd Floor Lobby: (315 S. Bellefield Ave. Pittsburgh PA 15213)

Share a light meal with the artists, including vegetarian and omnivorian deli sandwiches, salad, drinks, and dessert.

7 p.m. at Bellefield Hall Auditorium

IonSound Project, the University of Pittsburgh Department of Music's Ensemble-in-Residence, will give a concert titled Hometown Heroes, featuring music by John Adams, Patrick Burke, Eric Moe, Jonathan Kolm, David Stock, Philip Thompson, and Roger Zahab, with choreography by KnotDance.

Order Your PCMS-IonSound Project Day-Pass for March 8, 2009!

| | |
|----------------------------|----------------------------|
| Number of Passes | x $20 = Total |
| | |
| Number of Vegetarian Meals | Number of Omnivorian Meals |
| | |

Purchase your New Music Day-Pass for $20 by contacting
The Pittsburgh Chamber Music Society at 412-624-4129 or info@pittsburghchambermusic.org.
Visa or MasterCard accepted for phone orders.

Or send order form and check payable to Pittsburgh Chamber Music Society to

Pittsburgh Chamber Music Society
315 S. Bellefield Ave, Room 305
Pittsburgh, PA 15213